

EDUC 203: Resource Portfolio for Culturally Competent Educators/Professionals

Due – Friday, December 13

You must include this sheet w/ your portfolio ☺

Name: _____ NO RESUBMISSIONS OR LATE WORK

This resource portfolio is designed to be a user-friendly collection of diversity-related materials for your future use. You must follow the guidelines below – NO EXCEPTIONS. You must collect resources that would be helpful for the three populations specified. Make sure these are USER-FRIENDLY AND READY TO USE – CLEAN COPIES ONLY.

Binder: ALL ELEMENTS must be met for a grade of D or higher. Must be professional looking!

_____ 1” Three – Ring Binder (With A Title on the Front or Along the Spine) – Binder must be neat, no smudges. Professional looking – keep that in mind. Some folks have these bound.

_____ Three Divider Tabs – Labeled Properly: One per Resource Type

_____ Introductory Page – At the very beginning of the binder, discussing the purpose of the binder and its contents. Be sure to indicate your intended grade level and/or content area.

_____ Table of Contents – At the beginning of the folder listing all documents by title.

_____ Introductory Page – Preceding each resource type, describing the materials and how you will use them (3 total – one per resource type below).

_____ ☀ Teacher Resources – 5 minimum: Resources for Teachers’ use – lesson plans, guides, short articles, teacher self-assessments.....READY to use! Imagine giving these to teachers at an interview and telling them that they could use them immediately in their classes.

_____ ☀ Student/Classroom Resources – 5 minimum: Resources for Students – these are materials teachers could give to students TODAY! – must be READY to use! Some examples: handouts, actual activities, student self-assessments, materials to take home...

_____ ☀ Family/Community Resources – 5 minimum: Resources you would give to Parents/Guardians – tips for homework, surveys, tips for summer break, examples of newsletters, home-school connection materials – Again, these must be ready to use NOW!

Resources:

_____ ☀ Good Quality – If this is not met, the assignment is unacceptable = Automatic Zero

_____ ☀ User-Friendly & Ready to Use – If this is not met, the assignment is unacceptable = Zero

_____ Variety of Sources

Other:

_____ √It is clear that considerable time and effort went into this portfolio: Necessary for a grade of C or higher

_____ √I would recommend showing this portfolio to a potential employer: Necessary for grade of B or higher